NOTICE TO DEFENDANT REGARDING DISCOVERY

1. At your Discovery hearing, you have THE RIGHT TO REVIEW, with the State, evidence in the State's possession in your case.
2. You have THE RIGHT TO REQUEST (Motion for Discovery) from the State all documents, videos, items, and information regarding your case that is in the possession of the State.
3. If the State objects to your request for evidence in their possession, your case will be set on an arraignment docket for the Judge to consider your motion.
4. At this arraignment docket, the Judge may order the release of the evidence or uphold the objection.
5. After reviewing the discovery if you do not reach a plea deal, you can request a trial either by judge or jury.

PLEASE ALLOW 7-14 BUSINESS DAYS FOR DISCOVERY REQUEST TO BE PROCESSED

If you fail to appear any time the court requires your appearance, failure to appear charges will be filed and warrants will be issued for your arrest.
