Mobile Integrated Health Program

Actionable response by administration

Mobile Integrated Health (MIH)

- ▲ A study in the Annals of Emergency Medicine defines super utilizers as “Individuals visiting an emergency department four or more times per year.”
- ▲ In 2023, NBFD responded to 179 “Super Utilizers” that accounted for 1,341 calls (10%)

Actionable response by administration

▲ Calendar year 2023 NBFD responded to 192 super-utilizer patients accounting for 1,341 calls

- Top 25 accounted for 424 calls
- This will be our initial target for MIH
- Included in those top 25:
 - 3 patients called 37 times in 2023

Actionable response by administration

- ▲ Call Volume
 - FY23: 13,277
 - FY24: 13,283
- ▲ Despite the City's Growth and growth in the contracted areas of the ESD7- call volume in the City of New Braunfels has essentially flattened because of MIH
- ▲ Averaging the last 6 month of calls in FY23 compared to the last 6 month of FY24. MIH has avoided 300 calls for service.
- ▲ Cost savings of app $129,000 (average $430/call)

New Braunfels Fire Department LAFS program

- Life and Fire Safety aka “LAFS” is dedicated to teaching the youth of our community how to live safely, free from the effects of uncontrolled fires and accidental injuries.
- Our Firefighter have attended conferences to learn the techniques needed to produce a professional quality program as a clown.
