

Matthew Eckmann – Assistant Director of Public Works

Matthew Eckmann is the Assistant Director of Public Works for the City of New Braunfels, where he has served since 2015. Over the past nine years, he has held key leadership roles including Real Estate Manager, Facilities Manager, and, since 2022, Assistant Director of Public Works.

He holds a Bachelor's degree from Tarleton State University and is currently pursuing a Master of Public Administration (MPA) at Texas State University.

Matthew is active in the Community where he has had the honor of serving as the immediate past president and current board member of Comal County Habitat for Humanity. He also serves as President of the Comal County Child Welfare Board, is a graduate of Leadership New Braunfels (Class of 2019), and was honored as a New Braunfels "Rising Star" in 2021.

Outside of work, Matthew and his Husband, Larry, are the proud parents of three energetic boys. They spend most of their free time cheering them on from the sidelines of soccer fields, but also enjoy taking opportunities to travel and expose their children to new and exciting places.

Matthew is passionate about creating a safe, vibrant, and well-maintained city and is dedicated to ensuring New Braunfels remains a great place to call home.
